

Letter from Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel Hubbard Bell, March 17, 1896, with transcript

Alexander Graham Bell to Mabel (Hubbard) Bell. Oshkosh, Wisconsin, Tuesday, March 17, 1896. My darling Mabel:

Left Appleton, Wis., yesterday morning for Fond du Lac, Wisconsin. Saw the school there under Miss Annie Sullivan. She is a good teacher and is doing good work. In the afternoon met the Board of Education, and the parents of the pupils in the Hotel parlor where I made an Address. Left Fond du Lac the same afternoon reaching Oshkosh in the evening. Was met at the depot by the Supt. of Public Schools. After supper addressed a large audience in the high school building and meeting resulted in a large number of persons coming forward to form a Parents' Association. I am just going round to Mrs. Holden's school and at 3 o'clock will meet the parents and others who are to be organized into a Parents' Association. Will write again tonight.

Your loving husband, Alec.
